Re: Notice of Data Loss

Dear Director of the Consumer Protection Division:

I am writing pursuant to Iowa Code § 715C.2 on behalf of my client PAR Electrical Contractors, Inc. ("PAR") to notify your office of an incident that we believe involves the personal information of 814 Iowa residents. There are two categories of affected individuals: (i) present or former employees and (ii) vendors who may have provided a Social Security Number instead of a Taxpayer Identification Number.

The incident occurred on or about December 22, 2017, when a thief stole a container holding daily backup tapes that, as part of PAR's regular practices, had been taken off-site. The backup tapes contained data from PAR's employment records for present and former employees of PAR or a related company,¹ including name, contact information, Social Security Number, date of birth, and payroll data (including bank account number if used for direct deposit). For some of these individuals, the backup tapes contained driver's license or passport number (if submitted as part of the new hire process) and, in a small number of cases, may have included limited health information from workers compensation/accident claims or safety screening. For affected vendor-individuals, the backup tapes contained only name, business contact information, and the Social Security Number submitted by the individual as a Taxpayer Identification Number.

PAR is mailing letters to all affected individuals today. Sample individual notification letters are enclosed.²

Upon learning of this incident (on December 22), PAR promptly notified law enforcement and initiated an investigation. PAR believes the thief was seeking physical items, not electronic data, and PAR is not aware of any actual misuse of the backup tape data.

PAR has arranged for AllClear ID to provide identity protection services including credit monitoring at no charge to all affected individuals for twenty-four months. In addition, we have notified the three nationwide credit reporting agencies about this incident.

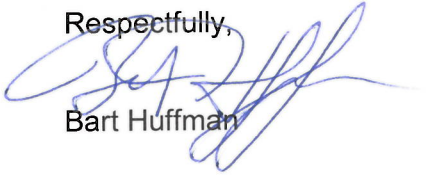

¹ A small portion of the backup data pertains to the following related companies: Crux Subsurface, Inc.; Quanta Subsurface LLC; Quanta Utility Engineering Services, Inc. f/k/a Ultimap; Utility Line Management Services, Inc.; and Winco, Inc.

² Note that, in the employee/former employee notification letters, the reference to limited health information has been included only when PAR believes such information may have been included for a given individual.

Although this was an isolated incident and PAR does not believe misuse of the data is likely, PAR has updated its backup procedures to reduce the possibility that such an incident will occur in the future. And PAR continues to review available sources for any indication that the backup tape data has been misused.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or if you would like to discuss the matter further.

Respectfully,

Bart Huffman

Dear John Sample,

PAR Electric Contractors, Inc. respects your privacy, and we are writing to let you know about a recent incident that involves your personal information.

What Happened

On or about December 22, 2017, a thief stole a container holding daily backup tapes that, as part of PAR's regular practices, had been taken off-site. Upon learning of this incident (on December 22), we promptly notified law enforcement and initiated an investigation. We believe the thief was seeking physical items, not electronic data, and we are not aware of any actual misuse of the backup tape data.

What Information Was Involved

The backup tapes included data from PAR's employment records for present and former employees.¹ We believe the data included your name, contact information, Social Security number, date of birth, and payroll data (including bank account number if used for direct deposit). In addition, the tapes may have included your driver's license or passport number (if submitted as part of the new hire process).

What We Are Doing

We take the security of your personal information very seriously. Although this was an isolated incident and we do not believe misuse of the data is likely, we have updated our backup procedures to reduce the possibility that such an incident will occur in the future. We continue to review available sources for any indication that the backup tape data has been misused.

We have notified the three nationwide credit reporting agencies about this incident,² and, as an added precaution, we have arranged for AllClear ID to protect your identity. The identity protection services described on the next page begin on the date of this notice, and you can use them free-of-charge at any time in the next 24 months.

¹ A small portion of the data pertains to current or former employees of the following related companies: Crux Subsurface, Inc.; Quanta Subsurface LLC; Quanta Utility Engineering Services, Inc. f/k/a Ultimap; Utility Line Management Services, Inc.; and Winco, Inc.

TransUnion: P.O. Box 1000, Chester, PA 19016, 1-800-888-4213, www.transunion.com

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you do not recognize. Look for inaccurate information, such as home address or Social Security number. If you see anything you do not understand or that looks incorrect, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

We recommend you remain vigilant with respect to reviewing your account statements and credit reports and promptly report any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to the proper law enforcement authorities, including local law enforcement, your state's attorney general and/or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). You may contact the FTC or your state's regulatory authority to obtain information about avoiding identity theft. Contact the FTC at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft.

For Maryland residents: You may obtain information about preventing and avoiding identity theft from the Maryland Office of the Attorney General: Maryland Office of the Attorney General, Consumer Protection Division, 200 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, MD 21202, 1-888-743-0023, www.oag.state.md.us.

For North Carolina residents: You may obtain information about preventing and avoiding identity theft from the North Carolina Attorney General's Office: North Carolina Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699, 1-877-5-NO-SCAM (66-7226), www.ncdoj.gov.

For New Mexico residents: You have rights under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). These include, among others, the right to know what is in your file; to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information; to have consumer reporting agencies correct, delete, or block inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; and to place a fraud alert on your credit report. For more information about the FCRA, please visit www.ftc.gov.

Fraud Alerts: You can place two types of fraud alerts on your credit report to notify creditors: an initial alert and an extended alert. You may place an initial fraud alert on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert lasts for at least 90 days. You may place an extended alert on your credit report if you have been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert lasts for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by calling the toll-free fraud number of any of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below.

Equifax: 1-866-349-5191, www.equifax.com
Experian: 1-888-397-3742, www.experian.com
TransUnion: 1-888-909-8872, fraud.transunion.com

Credit Freezes: You may have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may incur fees to place, lift and/or remove a credit freeze. Credit freeze laws vary from state to state. The cost of placing, lifting, and removing a credit freeze also varies by state, generally $5 to $20 per action at each credit reporting company. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Procedures for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, so please contact the three major credit reporting companies to learn information:

Equifax: 1-888-298-0045, P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com
Experian: 1-888-397-3742, P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
